NOTE: You may also edit previous information by selecting "PREVIOUS STEP" or clicking on "GENERAL INFORMATION". AwardSpring saves your progress as you enter it.

- Next, you need to upload an unofficial copy of your academic transcript or GED documents. Please make sure that your high school average, GPA, or GED score is reflected. This is necessary to be eligible for any N.C.C.C scholarships. To upload a document, select "UPLOAD FILE" in the center of the page. The transcript must be uploaded as a word (.doc, .docx) or .pdf file.

NOTE: If you do not have this information, you may skip this step by selecting "NEXT STEP", but you must come back to this page and upload a transcript before you are eligible for any scholarship.

- A document is successfully uploaded when the file can be seen above the "UPLOAD FILE" option on the page. Once completed, select "NEXT STEP" at the bottom of the page.

- Answer all of the qualification questions on the page. Notice that you will not have the option to submit your application until all answers are completed. Note that you may revise your answers at a later time. Once you have completed all answers, hit "NEXT STEP" at the bottom of the page.

NOTE: Be sure not to enter conflicting information in the academic information page and the qualifying questions page and among the qualifying questions. Doing so will trigger a "no" response and thus will negatively affect the calculated number of scholarships you will become eligible for.

- Upload a 2 page type-written essay which will be used for all of the scholarships you will be eligible for in the next section. You may be required to add an additional short essay once you are eligible for that scholarship. (Essay writing tips are available on the NCCC Scholarship webpage). To upload an essay, select "UPLOAD FILE" in the center of the page.
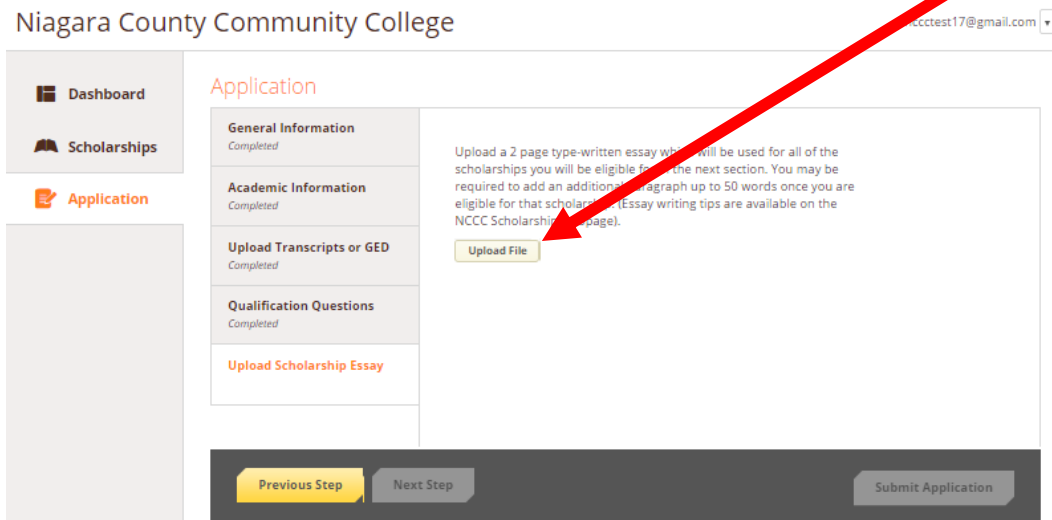

- A document is successfully uploaded when the file can be seen above the "UPLOAD FILE" option on the page.
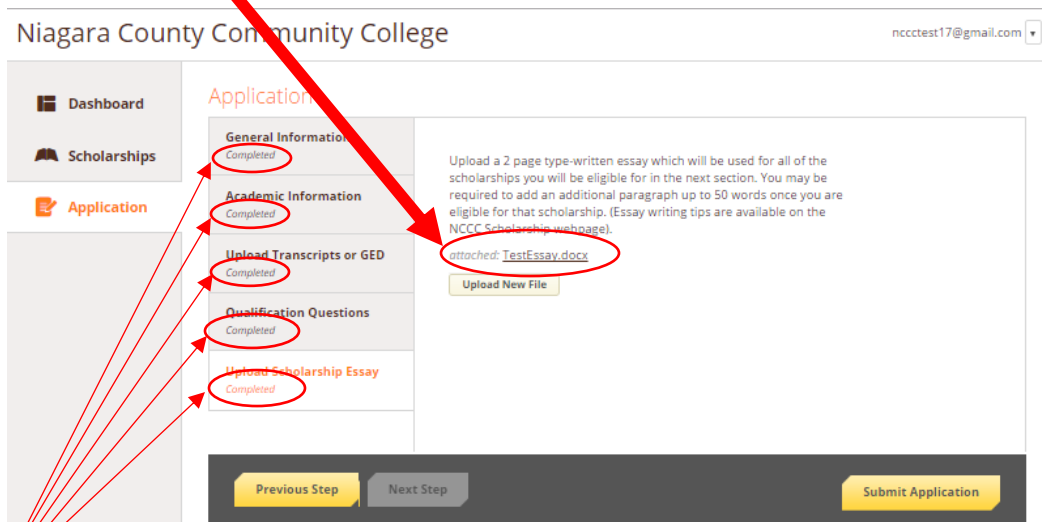

- When all of the sections are completed, the "SUBMIT APPLICATION" button in the lower right of the page will become highlighted. When you are satisfied with you application, click on this button to proceed.
- This will bring you to a screen that looks like the following:
