Dear NCCC Student:

At the YWCA of the Niagara Frontier we are gearing up for October as it is Domestic Violence Awareness Month. This is an important topic as many people from all genders, social classes, ethnicities, and sexual orientations experience some form of abuse in relationships, some at a drastically high rate. At our agency we have support services to help individuals find safety, start their healing journey, work towards being a survivor of Domestic Violence, not a victim. They work towards forming healthier relationships with themselves and others. We are looking for your creativity to help us design a new poster to bring attention and empower these survivors. We need a new image to show what it means to be a survivor of Domestic Violence, to empower, and help them recognize their worth. We are asking that all submissions be e-mailed to Pam McKinney at pmckinney@ywcanf.org no later than 12pm on Thursday October 14th. Please include the completed submission form below this letter with a clear photo or scan of your poster. The week of the 18th we will be posting the submissions to our social media pages for a community vote for the winner. First place will receive a prize from the agency, as well as recognition on our social media pages, and upcoming Domestic Violence events. If you have any questions feel free to e-mail Pam McKinney at pmckinney@ywcanf.org. We are looking forward to seeing your passion and artistic skills!

Sincerely,
Pamela McKinney,
Domestic Violence & Rape Crisis Counselor, YWCA

Check out our social media pages to see what we've been up to this year, but also to follow and vote in the poster contest in October!
